

A HOTEL LIFE

THE BODRUM EDITION

with Tansy Kaschak @

All of the terraces overlook Yalikavak Bay, one of the most charming corners of the Turkish Turquoise Coast.

HIGHS & LOWS

The mind-blowing food by Peruvian chef Diego Muñoz. Using only the best local produce (that he personally selected at the local market as the sun was rising), he brings together refreshed versions of Turkish staples with quintessential ceviche and other el mundo flavors. The never-ending tasting menu at Brava restaurant is a journey not-to-be-missed!

The short season. The hotel is only open from May to October.

The extraordinary selection of Turkish wines. We were dazzled bottle over bottle. Şerefe!

The combination of a multi-level vast property and a fairly small number of rooms results in an overall feeling of privacy and intimacy.

The staff. Friendly, attentive and professional, they were always open to cross any language barrier and go those extra miles to spoil us. True Turkish hospitality.
