AROUND THE NEIGHBORHOOD

BASQUIAT: FIGURES, SIGNS, SYMBOLS

Currently on view | Pérez Art Museum Miami

Pérez Art Museum Miami unveils its newest exhibition that features ten masterworks by Jean-Michel Basquiat from the Kenneth C. Griffin Collection. This is the largest exhibition presentation of the artist's work to date in Florida. In a brief yet remarkably prolific career, Basquiat emerged as a defining artist of the twentieth century and remains deeply relevant today. Shaped in part by a childhood spent visiting museums in New York City, Basquiat's work draws on a wide range of references—from world history and Renaissance anatomical studies to broader art-historical traditions.

SHAKIRA: LAS MUJERES YA NO LLORAN WORLD TOUR

July 1ST & July 2ND | Kaseya Center

Global icon Shakira arrives at Kaseya Center for two nights bringing her genre-spanning sound to Miami as part of her record-breaking Las Mujeres Ya No Lloran World Tour. Known for seamlessly blending Latin pop, rock, and dance, the Colombian singer-songwriter presents an evening that moves between newly released material and the defining songs that have shaped her decades-long career.

250 UNITED: AMERICA'S 250TH CELEBRATION

July 4TH | Bayfront Park

Live music, fireworks, a drone show and FIFA World Cup viewing come together at Bayfront Park for a large-scale Fourth of July celebration marking the nation's 250th anniversary. 250 United: America's 250th Celebration at Bayfront Park takes place Saturday, July 4th along Biscayne Bay. Presented by the Bayfront Park Management Trust, the free event brings concerts, food, cocktails and family-friendly programming to one of downtown Miami's most recognizable waterfront spaces.

DENNIS WATKINS' THE MAGIC PARLOUR

July 9TH - July 19TH

The Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts

Dennis Watkins brings his celebrated Magic Parlour experience to the Arsht Center for a limited Miami engagement. A third-generation magician known for his refined sleight of hand and intimate approach to illusion, Watkins invites guests into an evening of storytelling, mind reading, and tactile moments of surprise.

FOOT NOTES: SHOES, SYMBOLISM, AND SOCIETY

Currently on view

The Wolfsonian-Florida International University

Foot Notes at The Wolfsonian explores the cultural and creative significance of footwear through the early 20th century, a period marked by innovation in materials, craftsmanship, and design. Drawing from the museum's collection, the exhibition considers the shoe not simply as an object, but as an expression of identity and shifting social values. Featuring rare examples by designers such as Salvatore Ferragamo and Beth Levine, the presentation places iconic styles in dialogue with broader narratives of fashion, industry, and everyday life.
