

ECHOES

PUNCH ROOM

An echo is not a repetition.

It starts with something familiar, travels a little further,
picks up a few stories along the way, and comes back changed.

That's exactly how we approached this menu.
"Echoes" explores this idea through the language of cocktails.
Each creation begins with two established serves that have shaped the history of modern drinking.

Rather than reproducing the originals, they are reinterpreted through contemporary techniques, unexpected pairings,
and a distinctly Punch Room point of view.

The result is a collection that exists somewhere between memory and discovery. Familiar flavours emerge in new contexts, classic structures reveal fresh possibilities, and every cocktail reflects a dialogue between heritage and innovation.

This menu celebrates the enduring influence of the classics—not as fixed recipes, but as living ideas that continue to evolve.

Like an echo itself, each drink carries the essence of what came before while finding a voice entirely its own.
